MORNING ANNOUNCEMENT # 1

Car crashes are the leading cause of death for teenagers. Maybe you didn't know this, or maybe you just don't think it will happen to you. It's the truth, though. Young drivers are killed and seriously hurt every day. Many of these crashes are from stupid driving. Driving stupid includes driving without wearing a seat belt. Make sure you, and all your passengers, are buckled up on every trip. Remember, police will be in the area enforcing the Graduated Driver License Laws, so Don't Drive Stupid.

MORNING ANNOUNCEMENT #2

Young drivers are at their highest risk of getting into a crash during their first two years of driving. Why? Because you don't have enough experience behind the wheel, and let's be honest, sometimes you drive stupid. What's stupid driving? Well, driving while talking on your cell phone, sending a text message, or goofing around with your passengers is dangerous, and stupid. You need to avoid distractions, and stay focused on your driving. Remember, police will be in the area enforcing the Graduated Driver License Laws, so Don't Drive Stupid.

MORNING ANNOUNCEMENT # 3

What is the leading cause of death for teenagers? Guns? Drugs? Disease? No, car crashes. You might feel like a fatal crash won't happen to you or any of your friends, but the sad truth is that young drivers are killed in car crashes every day, often because they do something stupid behind the wheel. One of the stupidest things you can do is drive after you've been drinking or using drugs. You shouldn't be doing that stuff anyway, and drunk driving is a good way to get yourself killed, or to kill someone else. Remember, police will be in the area enforcing the Graduated Driver License Laws, so Don't Drive Stupid.

MORNING ANNOUNCEMENT # 4

Attention everyone with a driver's license! It's a dangerous time for you. Young drivers are at their highest risk of getting into a crash during the first two years after getting their license. You know how you can make things even worse and increase your chances of getting hurt or killed in a crash? By acting stupid when you drive. Speeding is particularly stupid. The faster you drive, the less time you have to react and the worse your injuries will be if you crash. And if you're racing with friends in another car... that's a recipe for disaster. Remember, police will be in the area enforcing the Graduated Driver License, so Don't Drive Stupid.
